↑ ROSE BY NORITAKE DESIGN COLLECTION
Faye Toogood hand-painted this pattern as a tribute to her English garden. Shown alongside her original canvas at Alcova, these porcelain platters are part of a larger limited-edition series that also includes plates and vases.

→ FOLIAGE BY POLTRONA FRAU
Known for the tranquil lighting depicted in his digital artworks, Barcelona's Ezequiel Pini (a.k.a. Six N. Five) achieves similar magic IRL with this ambient floor lamp featuring 10 leather-wrapped brass leaves.

↓ LILLYBET BY KARTELL
While the floral jacquard fabric on these plastic-framed seats may appear retro, it's actually an outcome of Kartell's futuristic experiments with A.I.

→ BETSY BY UNIQKA
Lara Bohinc looked to flora, fauna and Jim Henson characters for the five frilly furniture pieces in her new collection named after Betsy Bird, an underrated Muppet. Each design features leather panels layered onto a wooden frame.

↑ BUN BY KNOLL
Willo Perron appeals to daydreamers who like to keep their heads in the clouds with this puffy white lounge chair and ottoman.
