MAIN
BEDROOM

'Originally, this room was carpeted, but I extended the mosaic-style flooring seen elsewhere in the house for a sense of easy flow,' says Jen. A headboard with a graphic pattern adds extra depth and texture.

Headboard in Pierre Frey Limpopo fabric, Heatherly Design. Small raffia sconce, Tigmi Trading. Bed linen, Society Limonta. Mika side table, Castlery.

MAIN
BEDROOM

'I wanted to create a calm space where I could sit and deal with emails or do my make-up while looking out to the landscape below,' says Jen of this calm and simple space.

Sculptural lamp, Sarah Nedovic. Ming's Heart armchair by Shi-Chieh Lu for Poltrona Frau. Desk, designed by Periwinkle Interiors; marble and fabrication by Granite & Marble Works

OUTDOOR BATHING AREA

'We thought it would be such a luxurious move to plumb in a copper bath outside, where you could view the ocean while bathing and feel that you could be anywhere in the world,' says Jen.

Copper bath, Copper Baths. Tap, Brooklyn Copper
